The Church won't be Bribed.

It appears from a letter elsewhere in this issue, that the appropriation to the Douglas and Cayoosh churches has not only aroused public sentiment, but it has even offended the clergy that it was intended to benefit. Mr. Pringle states that it was made without Bishop Hill's knowledge. If so we hope the appropriation will be refused. The way the matter stands, either the Church of England has to adhere to the doctrines of Voluntarism laid down in the Bishop's inaugural, or if they shelve that, they need expect no aid from Nonconformists to advance the objects of the mission. For it is not to be supposed that the public will be willing to be bled both ways, from the public treasury and their individual purses.

Under all the circumstances, Bishop Hills may exclaim "save me from my friends." Already it has aroused an intense feeling in all sections of British Columbia. Yale, Hope and Lytton, take the appropriation in the light of an attempt to bolster up the Harrison-Lilloet route, in preference to theirs; and besides repudiate totally the policy of subsidizing religion. At a recent meeting held at Hope, to consider the propriety of petitioning Gov. Douglas (at his request) to put on another half cent per pound on all goods leaving for Smilkameen in order to complete that road, it was decided not to do so. The grounds of non-concurrence with his Excellency's request were based on the appropriations to Douglas and Cayoosh churches. It was even intimated in the reply that if such appropriations could be given, it was very evident that the treasury must be flush, and that therefore it was not advisable to tax trade with additional burdens. Whatever may be said as to the wisdom of such a reply, yet it leaves no doubt as to the abhorrence with which all appropriations for religious uses are met in British Columbia. To put an end at once and for ever to all such surreptitious modes of promoting Episcopacy, we trust that Bishop Hills will distinctly refuse the proffered aid. If accepted, and hid for a time by the dark-lantern system of British Columbia from the public, it cannot be always so. It is bound to be exposed sooner or later from the Blue Books, if not earlier. To avoid future scandal, the wisest course is to prevent it. Such is now within reach, and not to embrace it, is to adopt a policy that will produce bitter fruit hereafter.

The Springs.

In framing the Incorporation Bill we are much surprised that its getter-up has not brought the Springs within the city limits. The bill gives the Council the power to furnish the city with water; but if it is passed in its present shape, we believe that nothing short of a special Act of Parliament will ever place the rightful owners—the people—in full possession of this valuable piece of property. Since the relinquishment of the Cary-Cochrane claim to the water, and the failure of the suit against the Hudson Bay Company, but little has been heard regarding the Springs beyond the announcement in public court of the Attorney-General that he had not the least doubt but the property was the public's. We do not like this silence on so important a matter—we should much prefer to see a stir made in the legislators. Silence at this time looks ominous—forebodes no good to the people. If the originator of the Incorporation Bill has not the least doubt but the Springs are irrevocably the property of the shortly-to-be-hatched corporation, by all means place them in full possession of it. If, on the contrary, he does not recognize the public right, let us know his true feelings, in order that steps may be taken to test the case. As the bill at present reads, we see a mine of trouble ahead for the City Fathers if they attempt to do their duty, and the prospect of a continual battle between the Hudson Bay Company and the corporation are most encouraging. Giving the city, plainly and unequivocally, the possession of the Springs, will be a quasi endorsement by Parliament of the correctness of the claim. Neglecting or refusing to do so, will be but shirking a sacred duty for the present which eventually they will have to perform, or vacate our Assembly-halls.

Estimates.

It is expected that the Estimates will be laid before the House to-day. It is certainly to be hoped that before they are voted that we will have a clear account of the affairs of the colony. Up to the present we have had no such statement. We have to grope in the dark for information. How much longer the country is to remain in ignorance on the subject remains with the Assembly. And the longer they keep the information back the heavier will be the account to settle with their constituents. The Assembly quarreled with the Council last session about altering the Liquor Bill. It is hoped they will alter their policy so as to let the country know how the public funds have been expended. The idea of throwing funds into the lap of the Executive without check is an indulgence not to be tolerated. Before more money is given for Her Majesty's use we want to know how much of what has been given has been spent, and what we are in debt.

Arrival of the Catherine Alexandria, FROM OLYMPIA!

Sinking of the Steamer Pacific in Columbia River.

Two Days Later from the States.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA!

LATER FROM CHINA!

INTERESTING DETAILS!

The schooner Catharine Alexander, arrived from Olympia at 7 o'clock last evening, bringing the intelligence of the sinking of the steamer Pacific in Columbia River, and two days later from the seat of war. The accident to the Pacific must have occurred on the night of the 17th inst., three days subsequent to her leaving here, and while on her way down the river bound for San Francisco, as we see a notice of the shipment of $10,000 in gold by her, on the evening of the 17th, in one of the Portland papers. The account received of the accident is very meagre, and is contained in the following letter from C. E. Pendergast, Esq., who is rusticating at Olympia, to J. L. Smith, Esq., of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s in this city. We shall have additional particulars to-day by the Anderson:

OLYMPIA, July 19, 1861.
J. L. SMITH, Esq.: Dear Sir—The news has just arrived here that the steamer Pacific has sunk in Columbia River about sixty-five miles from Portland. She struck on Coffin Rock, and floated about one mile down the river. There were fifteen feet of water in the hold, when she drifted on a sand-bank. The steamer Cowitz went down to take the passengers off and carry them to Portland. * * * I shall write to Capt. Huntington of the steamer Coeur, asking him if he will not be kind enough to go to Victoria with his steamer. In haste. C. C. PENDERGAST.

[From the above we gather that no lives were lost by the disaster.—ED. COLONIST.]

BALTIMORE, June 27.
The New York Herald's special from Washington says many families have packed up ready to leave the city in expectation of General Banks' proclamation, and at the prospect of being ruled by those they have no confidence in. A positive order has been given by the Marshal to avoid irritating the people and arrest Unionists who make violent demonstrations.

The United States Deputy Marshal has instituted search for arms in private dwellings. A lot was seized in a lager beer saloon.

A company of twenty men was stopped on board the steamer.

Many additional regiments of United States troops have arrived at Washington.

Colonel Jones' regiment is here from the Relay House, and reports are current that the United States forces are throwing up intrenchments about three miles east of Baltimore, on the Baltimore and Philadelphia Railroad.

BALTIMORE, June 28th.
There is a good deal of quiet excitement here. Crowds are around the police stations and Marshal's office. A search at the Marshal's office is going on. A large quantity of arms and munitions have been found secreted in the cellar and the walls beneath the floor and cellar, and a case of valuable pistols, over $300 rifles, twenty-five of which were Minie, were found; also, several muskets, said to have belonged to the Massachusetts soldiers who were disbanded by the mob on April 18th. It is also estimated that 100,000 percussion caps, 3100 ball cartridges, and 6900 long Minie cartridges were found.

WASHINGTON, June 27th.
The Tribune's Washington dispatch says a Virginian here alleges the way the Union men are treated in Virginia is incredible.

A man who arrived at Alexandria from Manassas Junction to-day, says that the strongest fortifications of the rebels were four miles this side of the Junction, at Union Mills, where the railroad crosses a large stream, and also Bull's Run, and higher up the stream where the road from Fairfax Court House crosses.

Letters from Southern Kentucky, received to-day, say that cattle and mules by droves, and loads of bacon, are daily passing through Cumberland Gap to the rebels. The writer adds that if the people of that section of Kentucky were armed with legal authority to do so, they would soon put a stop to the business. A regiment or two could easily be formed in the neighborhood.

The New York Herald's Washington dispatch says the rebels from Baltimore intended issuing a proclamation announcing the defeat of Federal troops, and the capture of Washington and all the officials, then tearing up the railroad and cutting the telegraph wires, and thus produce a panic in favor of the Southern Confederacy.

It is understood that the Secretary of the Treasury will recommend the raising of $250,000,000, and has three plans—one by a popular loan, another by a foreign loan, and another by the issue of small Treasury notes.

Messengers to the War Department state that General Patterson is making preparations to advance and take possession of Harper's Ferry.

The Garibaldi Guards and two other regiments go into Virginia to-night.

A reward of $25,000 for the head of Jeff. Davis, $15,000 for Beauregard, $10,000 for Mason's, and five cents for Pryor and Wigfall's, are offered.

The New York Tribune gives extracts from a letter from J. M. Botts to that journal, dated Washington, June 28th. He says:

With great danger I arrived here in disguise; and states, he is there as a member of Congress, as he announced himself as a candidate from the Richmond District, and received 173 votes, which, there being no opposition, entitles him. The letter states that the Southern insurrection is at its last gasp, while negro insurrections are everywhere threatened.

Botts says that Beauregard has sent a circular south, asserting that if the cotton States do not raise a "d equip one hundred thousand men in six weeks" we are lost.

WASHINGTON, June 28th.
The Pawnee arrived at the Navy Yard this morning, bringing intelligence from Mathias Point. According to the statement of persons in the expedition, Captain Ward, of the Freeborn, yesterday obtained from the Pawnee reinforcements of about twenty men, and united with the others from his own vessel, comprising between thirty and forty men in all, they started in several cutters for Mathias, taking with them about two hundred and fifty sand bags, with which breastworks were soon erected. While returning to the Freeborn to obtain cannon for the battery, a force of the Confederate troops, from 1200 to 1500, suddenly emerged from a thick wood where they had been concealed, and poured in a volley of shot into the party, who made a hasty retreat.

Capt. Ward protected the men as far as possible, firing twelve or fifteen shots among the rebels, but the effect could not be ascertained.

Capt. Ward, whilst firing a gun, was struck in the breast by a bullet, and died within an hour. Several others were wounded.

The flag carried by the company was completely riddled.

A special dispatch to the New Orleans Delta says a special dispatch from Mississippi City, of June 26th, says a steamer anchored off the Point had captured five schooners, with which she sailed southwest.

The blockade at this point, the same paper says, has been permanently instituted, and has caused the Mobile mail boats to discontinue.

The same paper intimates that the India, China and English merchantmen will be rich prizes for privateers.

The New Orleans Picayune of June 24th, says a United States ship of war, eighty guns, anchored off Atchafalaya, Texas, intercepting communication via Berwick Bar with Texas.

GRAPTON, (Vir.) June 27.
Corporal Hays and twelve men belonging to Col. Wallace's regiment of Hussars, while scouting on Patterson's Creek, twelve miles east of Cumberland, met before last, encountered a party of rebels numbering about forty. A sharp engagement ensued. Several of the enemy were reported killed and a number wounded. They captured a number of horses.

The rebel camp at Buchanan is reported to have been increased to 4000.

WASHINGTON, June 27.
Colonel Werr left here several days ago for Kansas, taking with him Gen. Lane's proclamation, calling on the people of the State to rally and fill up the regiments, stating explicitly his purpose to put down rebellion wherever it may be exhibited and to sustain Union men without regard to State or locality.

BOSTON, June 27.
Col. Fremont came passenger in the Europe, and left for New York last night.

BALTIMORE, June 27.
Considerable excitement exists, occasioned by the arrest of Marshal Kane. Union men are pleased, but Secessionists are indignant. Colonel Henley, the Provost Marshal, waited on the Mayor and Police Commissioners, when the latter asked him to consider the matter. Henley replied that his orders were immediate. He then proceeded to the Marshal's office, taking possession. The Commissioners then directed the officers to obey the military authority, but declared their intention to prepare a protest against the action of the Government.

LOUISVILLE, June 28.
Two fugitive slaves, caught near Corydon, Indiana, were returned to Kentucky yesterday. There was no excitement whatever at their arrest.

Major General Pillow issues a proclamation in the Memphis Bulletin of the 24th, which recalls the order that whisky and tobacco be distributed with the rations. He says he gave the order on his own responsibility, supposing the Military Board would allow it, knowing that the soldiers were gentlemen and used to plenty of whisky and tobacco.

PHILADELPHIA, June 27.
The prize ship Amelia is at the Navy Yard. The cargo consists of iron crates, camp ovens, equipment and machinery. The vessel is valued at $12,000, and the cargo at $500,000. It is thought that arms are concealed in the crates.

A Washington special correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post says a movement is on foot to elect Emerson Etheridge Secretary of the Senate. He will accept if chosen.

A special dispatch to the New York Commercial says; Chandler, (Bel and Everett) elected in Virginia, has arrived here from Norfolk, being obliged to leave. He says that everybody thereabouts is being pressed into the Confederate service.

HAGERSTOWN, (Md.) June 27.
Two deserters from a Pennsylvania regiment have been arrested, and will probably be shot as an example.

Our troops left Williamsport for Falling Waters last night.

Information from high officials says there will be a forward movement when there is sufficient artillery and means of transportation.

BALTIMORE, June 27th.
At three o'clock this afternoon, George P. Kane, Police Marshal of this city, was arrested at his house by order of General Banks, and conveyed to Fort Melleny, where he is now held a prisoner. Henley is to exercise supreme control over the Police Department until some known loyal citizen is appointed to act as Marshal. The proclamation gives the reason of the arrest of Kane, which is that he is known to be aiding and abetting those in armed rebellion against the Government, and is at the head of an armed force, which he had used to conceal rather than detect acts of treason against the Government.

This afternoon the Police Commissioner issued orders disbanding the police. He also issued a protest, signed by the Mayor, as one of the Board. Henley has sworn in a new force.

BOONVILLE, June 28th.

One hundred and thirty men have arrived here from Georgetown and Sedalia counties, for the purpose of being sworn into the United States service as Home Guards, to serve in the State. They are expected to-morrow. Large bodies of men in Johnson county are preparing to take the same steps. They will be sworn in and receive arms as soon as possible.

General Lyon is still here. It is thought he will soon take his departure with a large force, but its destination is not known.

Colonels B. W. Grover and Johnston, of Johnston county, have formed a regiment under Col. Grover, for the purpose of being sworn into the service of the United States, acting as Home Guards throughout the State. They have commenced drilling, and Colonel Grover is here to secure them arms from General Lyon. He also reports that 800 are organized in Pettis county and 600 in Cass county. Two hundred of the Pettis county men arrived to-day as a convoy to take arms back with them.

WASHINGTON, June 29th.

It is understood that the President's Message will take firm ground against peace with rebels until they acknowledge the authority of the Government.

The outrageous conduct of the Virginia rebels' Convention, in outlawing citizens of the State who may take seats in the Border Congress, determines the Government to sanction severe measures against the leaders of rebellion.

Marshal Kane's arrest will be followed by more vigorous measures, if any symptoms of revolution appear.

On and after Monday next, all mail matter to the Pacific coast will be sent by the Overland route, via St. Joseph.

The Postmaster of this city requests all persons writing to soldiers, to be particular to designate the regiment, company and State, from which the regiment came.

It is reported that General Lee is disgusted at being superseded by Beauregard and others.

A submarine telegraph will be laid from Fort Monroe to Newport News Point.

Owing to the expeditions calling so many troops into the field, the Quartermaster's Department had not been able to furnish uniforms so as to immediately supply the demand. Measures have been taken, however, for an adequate supply at the earliest practicable period.

General Fremont will arrive in Washington to-night.

WASHINGTON, June 18.
General Scott has received a dispatch, dated Cumberland, June 27, from Colonel Wallace, saying that a portion of the Thirteenth Regiment, while returning from Frankfort, near Romney, where they had been to see if there were any rebels, overtook forty of the enemy, charged upon them, routing and driving them over a mile, killing eight and securing seventeen horses. After an hour's rest the enemy's forces suddenly attacked us and obliged us to abandon the horses and retreat to a small island at the mouth of Patterson Creek, where we killed twenty-three of the enemy. We were finally driven off, each man for himself, and are now safe in Camp. Corporal Hays, of Company A, is wounded. John E. Holdingbrook was taken prisoner and murdered. Two rebel officers were killed.

[Here the wires got out of order, and the dispatch was broken off.]

SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9th.—Ship Moonlight has arrived from Hongkong. She left that port on the 17th May, and on the 19th she ran on Zerman's Island. Pirates attempted to take her, but through the determination and bravery of her commander she was got off without damage.

John Conness has been nominated for Governor and Joe. McKibben for Congress by the Democrats.

Only three days before, the English brig North Star was taken by the pirates at the same place, and the captain, mate, five of the crew and two passengers killed and the vessel robbed.

Ten days before the Moonlight sailed, the small steamer Merlin was taken by the pirates, and Captain Risley and his mate, both Americans murdered.

July 10th.—The libel case of Warren Mix against certain printers who protested against Mix's appointment to office, was dismissed to-day in the Police Court. The Judge fully exonerated the defendants, remarking that the letter addressed to the Collector was a complaint justly founded.

The Bulletin intimates that a plan is being considered for a new Union Convention of delegates, chosen by Democrats hostile to the Conness ticket.

Tuesday Morning, July 23, 1861.

INDIAN POLICEMEN.—The system of appointing the Indian chiefs as policemen of the morals of their different tribes, produced a marked good effect at the lodges on Sunday. Scarce a drunken native was to be seen the whole day, and the vicinity of the camp, which has heretofore on the holy Sabbath presented the appearance of a Bedlam rather than the abode of rational beings, was as quiet and orderly as Victoria itself. The typhes, clothed in their newly acquired authority, maintained a vigilant watch on the movements of their flocks, and the first attempt at rioting or drunkenness was at once quelled and the offender brought to the lock-up. We hope the good effect thus visible will not be of a transient character, like all other reforms which have been instituted here for the benefit of the red man. The chiefs, during the past three years, have gradually felt the power which they once exercised over their people departing from them. As the lesser lights of the tribe have been brought in contact with white associates, they have acquired a boldness and independence of action which told their rulers that soon they would be merely masters in name, but not in fact. The new authority in which they are clothed by the government, gives them some hope for an eventual return of power, which hope, combined with the novelty of the thing, will, for a short time at least, have a very beneficial effect, and serve to make them active in the performance of their duty. We are opposed to allowing the Northern tribes to settle here under any circumstances; but since they are here, and the government will not exert its potent influence to send them back home, we gladly hail the inauguration of any system which has in view their social or moral advancement.

RETURN OF A PROSPECTING PARTY.—A party of prospectors, who had spent some ten days in the interior of this Island prospecting for precious metals, returned on Saturday night last, bringing with them specimens of minerals supposed to be silver ore, and pieces of fine white marble. The mineral specimens were yesterday submitted to Messrs. Robertson & Laurion, assayers, and pronounced valueless. The marble was polished by a practical worker in such material, and by him pronounced to be equal to the best Italian, which, it is well known, commands a very high price in Europe. The supply of marble is represented as inexhaustible. The prospectors observed many indications of copper and did not fail in obtaining the color of gold wherever they washed a pan of dirt.

HERE AT LAST.—We have great pleasure in announcing to our numerous readers that the Royal Mail Packet the Isle of France arrived yesterday afternoon, after a long but pleasant passage from San Francisco, all hands well. The mails, which were in excellent order, came ashore under the fatherly eye of Captain Gardiner, in the pilot's boat. Letters were distributed last evening to such of our citizens as had the forethought to call for them. The packet was out twenty-four days and will go hence to New Westminster. Her freight consists principally of hay and barley—about 225 tons in all. She anchored near Albert Head, and will continue her voyage this morning. May good luck go with her.

SICKNESS AND EXPOSURE.—A Mexican, name unknown, aged about 35 years, was found on Saturday last lying in the bushes near Harris' slaughter-house, apparently in a dying state. The neighbors furnished him with food, but left him lying in the place where he was found until yesterday afternoon, when a wagon was procured and the poor wretch taken to the hospital. He is evidently in consumption, but his present condition seems in a great measure attributable to exposure and want of proper food. The length of time for which he had lain in the bushes without nourishment or food is not known.

SUPPOSED LOSS OF THE "KAFFIR CHIEF."—A letter was received yesterday from London, by Messrs. Dickson, Campbell & Co., consignees of the bark Kafir Chief, which left London for this port on the 31st of January last, stating that two head-boards had been picked up at sea with the letters "K" on one, and "Chief" on the other. The vessel is one month over due, and it is feared by the writer that she has foundered at sea and all hands were lost.

DRUNKEN INDIANS.—"Jim" and "Jack," two Northern Indians who had imbibed too much of the ardent on Sunday, were brought to prison during the night by their chiefs, and yesterday morning were fined five shillings by the Police Magistrate.

THE ROUGE AND VAGABOND.—John Wemyss, a colored chap, charged with being a vagabond and a loafer yesterday furnished proper security to be of good behavior for two months, and was discharged from custody.

RACE.—The race between Golding's b. m. "Peggy" and Howard's b. g. "Black Jack," distance 400 yards, for $50 aside, will come off at Beacon Hill at half-past four o'clock to-day. Two or three "scrubs" are proposed about the same time.

THE "CARIBOO."—This new steamer made a trial-trip yesterday and proceeded to Esquimalt, where she will be beached for the purpose of having her bottom scraped. The hull is beautifully modeled and the engines worked satisfactorily.

DRILL-SERGEANT.—A sergeant, detailed from the San Juan garrison to drill the Rifle Corps, has arrived. It is hoped that he will commence operations as soon as possible.

MAIL SERVICE.—The Government has made an arrangement with the sloop Box to carry the mails between this port and Nanaimo four times a month.

THANKS.—To J. L. Smith Esq., of Wells, Fargo & Co., for late papers furnished us yesterday.

MAGISTRATE FOR CARIBOO.—C. A. Gompertz, late of Port Hope, B. C., has received the appointment of magistrate for the Cariboo District.

Capt. Fitzstubbis has been appointed Sheriff at Williams' Lake, B. C.

Forty-two prisoners were in jail yesterday morning.

Rev. A. D. Pringle on Appropriations for the Douglas and Cayoosh Churches. Hope, July 20, 1861.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST.—The late act of His Excellency in giving aid towards the erection of a church at Douglas and Lillooet, is one which has called forth an amount of public opinion at which I am not surprised. The act itself was unsolicited and uncalculated, for, unsolicited, as I am informed, by the Bishop of Columbia, or the clergy of the Church of England at Douglas and Lillooet; uncalculated, I think, on very weighty grounds. Is it likely to promote religion or religious feeling? This is an abstract question, and the first thing to be considered, before developing religion through a time-honored institution like the Church of England; for anxious as I am to see truth, as taught by the Church of England, widely received, I am more desirous of its reception and observance by itself, even though unconnected with our formularies.

I do not think that any one who has made use of the shortest residence in British Columbia, and studied the character and tone of thought of its inhabitants, would say for a moment, that religion or religious feeling will be promoted by the act of the Governor. With the majority, religion and its observance have not the weight they deserve, but there are still a large number of persons who do value it highly; all these classes, in my opinion, will be at variance with the Governor's act. The grounds of difference I cannot help alluding to.

There is the broad objection to any Union between religion and the state in this Colony. The merits of the objection need not be considered, for the objection is allowed and recognized. This objection was recognized by the Church of England and by the Bishop of Columbia at the outset of his mission. It was felt to be a great step—consulting the wants and wishes of the Colony, and its members raised in the clear announcement of this principle as the foundation stone of religion and religious feeling here.

This principle of self-dependence or self support has not been observed. "The end does not justify the means." I assert that religion will not be promoted, if principles warmly approved of by the whole colony are thus publicly shelved. Is the Governor's grant likely really to aid the Church of England? The erection of a Church anywhere, after all, only the first stone of a more valuable temple—the body of Christian worshippers—money cannot build the latter. Talent, energy, respectability, will not do it. I cannot conceive this temple likely to rise where the material fabric may be regarded with hostile feelings. I trust it may not be so, but unless I am mistaken as to Colonial feeling, it will be so. Any of the grants in question which proceeds from the Governor on his own authority, will retard the progress of the Church of England in the future, and injure its well-being at the present.

The members of every church may with justice apply to all for aid in extending her operations, whilst she is recognized as acting on the principle of each church creed standing on its own merits and making its way to the utmost of its power. At present we have no reason to complain of want of success in either Colony, when all things are considered; the calls of the bishop and clergy have been responded to with deliberation by many (unaccustomed to the voluntary system, but well able to further it) of our body, and others who wish us well though not ostensibly connected with us, our requests for aid have been met cheerfully and liberally.

Are we to lose the aid of our own adherents and that of a large number who recognize with pleasure the Bishop's endeavors to spread religious truth throughout the length and breadth of the Colony, in consequence of the Governor's grant throwing suspicion as it does on the avowed principle of the Bishop and Clergy and affording the readiest excuse for withholding personal and pecuniary aid? Are we, members of the Church of England, thankfully to receive as a boon what will alienate us from all who differ from us positively and a far larger body who are neutral "nonconformists" in every sense? Can we calmly accede to a measure which (laying aside all questions of religion general, or special) will inevitably produce controversy and ill feeling in a community which is already burdened with vexed questions and needs not the offices of a shrewd friend to throw amongst them this source of apples of discord? "How great a fire a little spark kindles" is familiar to us all from the books of Revelation and nature.

Those in authority have not always, I think, the same means of arriving at a just estimation of public opinion as those who mix more with the public and hear their undigested opinion. This is my excuse for writing on this subject at such length, and as I deem the occasion of great import, I think it only just not to shrink from attaching my name to my views.

I am, sir, yours, obediently,
A. D. PRINGLE.

Bitters.—No medicine has ever achieved a higher reputation. In every section of the country, the physicians in the country have expressed their warm approval of this preparation, as uniting all the best qualities of a tonic and invigorator, without kindling an appetite for alcoholic liquors. In cases of discussion of the digestive organs, to which all unaccused persons are, from necessity, exposed, the proper diet cannot at all times be had, the Bitters will be found to be the quickest corrective and most reliable remedy yet discovered. Diarrhea, Dysentery, and the various bilious and intermittent fevers, yield to the curative properties of this medicine. No person should be without the Bitters a single day.
